

Figure 1. Towing an 80kg dummy representing a wounded patient over a distance of 100m.

Figure 2. Study participant towing a wounded patient (SimMan 3G) to a safe area suitable for treatment.

Figure 3. Study participant applies a tourniquet after identifying massive bleeding from the lower limb.

Figure 4. Study participant performing an oral cavity check.

Figure 5. Study participant performing NPA airway support.

Figure 6. Study participant performing a posterior body check on a patient.

Figure 7. Study participant performing a breathing rate check and chest wall excursion.

Figure 8. Bird's eye view of the simulation.